WE CAN HELP YOUR SCHOOL ACHIEVE ITS TARGETS

Coventry Music Service has played a significant role in supporting Barr's Hill School through the delivery of high-quality peripatetic music lessons. Their specialist teachers provide 1:1 and small-group tuition across a wide range of instruments, including strings, woodwind and drums, and they expertly prepare students for graded examinations.

Several tutors have also worked closely with our GCSE and A-Level cohorts, offering targeted guidance on the performance elements of their courses. This partnership has enabled many students to achieve instrumental grades — with some gaining valuable UCAS points — and has created enriching opportunities beyond the classroom, such as meeting Ed Sheeran and securing funding that helped us develop our school recording studio. This ongoing support continues to make a meaningful difference to the musical experiences and aspirations of our students.

"We just wanted to drop you a quick line to thank you for arranging the visit by Ed Sheeran and his team. Annabelle was totally surprised and overjoyed when she played with Electric Blue and it has motivated and enthused further. Thank you for everything you do."
